VISA FOR CROATIA:

Please note it is very important that the visa is multiple or double entry.

If it is a single entry, a passenger cannot travel to Venice on a day trip, because the passenger will not have a permission to re-enter Croatia in the evening.

IMPORTANT:

Passengers who require a visa for Croatia can use either of the following, instead of a Croatian visa:

- Schengen residence permit- issued by one of the Schengen area member states.
- Schengen visa type c- for two or multiple entries, valid for all schengen area member states.
- Long-stay Schengen visa type d- for stays exceeding three months, issued by one of the Schengen area member states.
- Visa with limited territorial validity (Itv visa) – for two or multiple entries.
- Nationals of Kosovo, holders of Itv visa- valid for all Schengen countries except for Greece and Spain.
- National visas and residence permits of Bulgaria, Cyprus and Romania – visas for two or multiple entries.

Please note that holders of the above mentioned Schengen documents do not require an additional (Croatian) visa for transit through or intended stays in the territory of Croatia not exceeding 90 days in any 180-day period.

The period of validity of the above mentioned Schengen documents shall cover the duration of the transit or stay in Croatia.

- Passengers with biometrical passport issued in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Moldova, Georgia and Ukraine do not require a visa to enter Croatia.
- Passengers with a passport issued in the special administrative regions of the people's Republic of China, Hong Kong and Macao do not require a visa for business, tourist or personal visits to Croatia that do not exceed 90 days.
- Serbian Citizens with passport issued by Serbian Coordination Directorate require a visa to enter Croatia.
- Passengers with passport issued in Taiwan which include the identity card number, do not require a visa to enter Croatia.
